Holy Week

The Church sets apart an entire week to recall the events of the last week of Jesus' life. Holy Week begins with Palm Sunday and ends with Holy Saturday.

Palm
Sunday

On Palm Sunday, Christians remember the day Jesus rode into the city of Jerusalem. As Jesus entered the city, people greeted him by waving palm branches and calling out Hosanna. Every Palm Sunday, Catholics bless palms at Mass and take them home to remember that day.

Holy
Thursday

On Holy Thursday, Christians remember the Last Supper of Jesus with his disciples. During the Last Supper Jesus washed the feet of his disciples to teach them to show love for others.

Good
Friday

On Good Friday, Christians remember that Jesus suffered and was made to carry his cross up the hill where he was nailed to it. On Good Friday, the Church gathers to kneel at the cross of Jesus to pay honour to it. The Cross is inseparable from the sacrifice of Jesus. In honouring the Cross, people are honouring Jesus who died to bring new life.

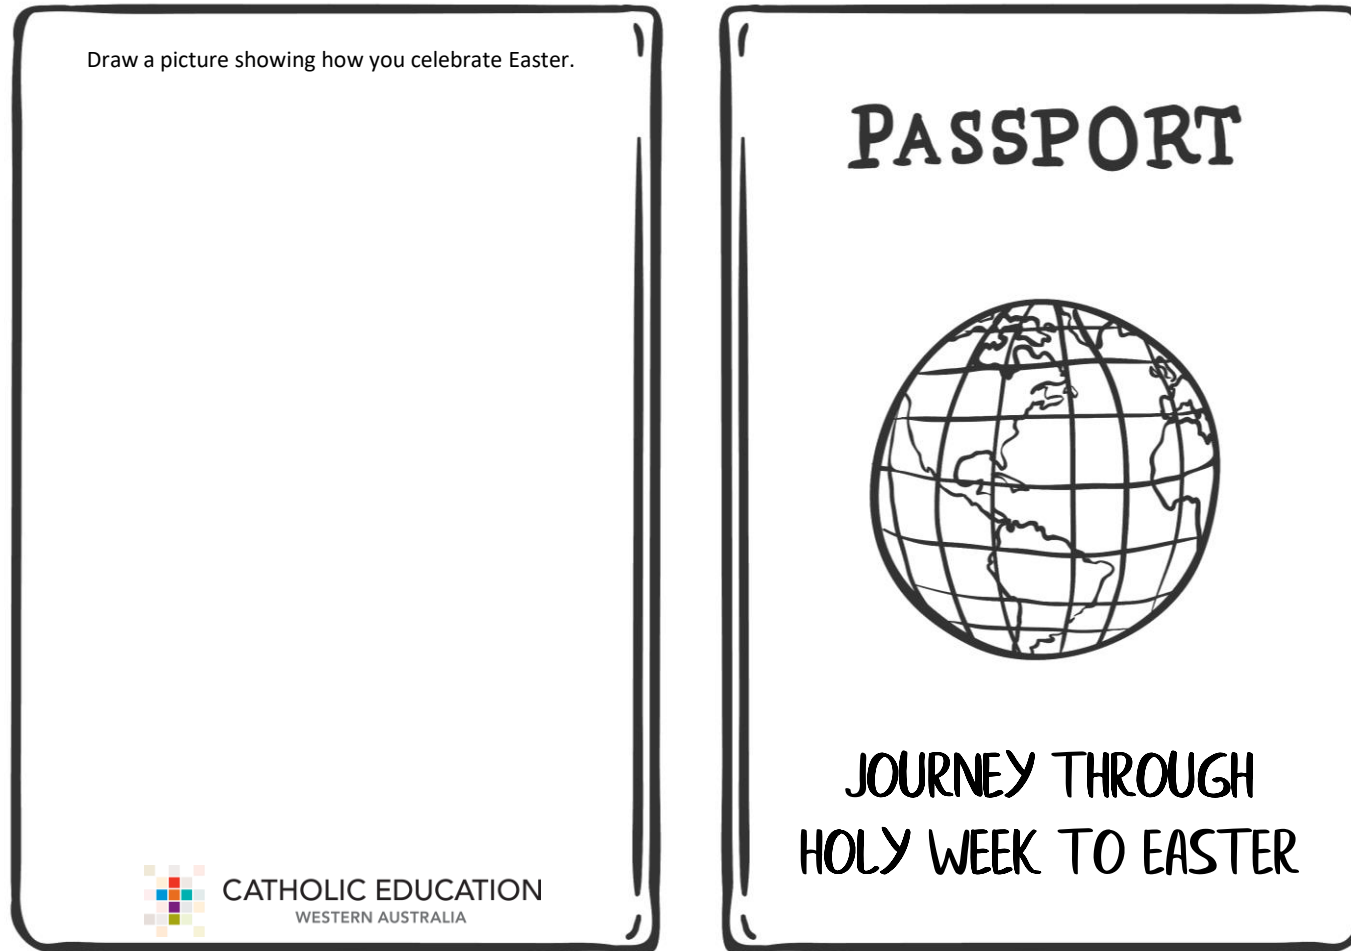

Holy
Saturday

On Holy Saturday, the Church waits at the Lord's tomb, meditating on his suffering and death. The altar is left bare and Mass is not celebrated. Every Holy Saturday, the Church has a quiet day. No Masses or Sacraments are celebrated on that day. People pray quietly remembering the body in the tomb.

The Story of the Resurrection

Read the story of the Resurrection, which has been adapted from Matthew 28:1-10.

After the Sabbath, and near dawn on the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala and the other Mary went to the tomb of Jesus. All of a sudden, there was an earthquake and an angel of the Lord came down from heaven, rolled away the stone that covered the tomb, and sat on it.

The angel had a face like lightning and wore a robe that was as white as snow. The guards were so scared to see the angel. The angel spoke to the women and said, 'Do not be afraid. I know you are looking for Jesus. He is not here, because he has risen, just as he said he would. Come inside and see where he was laid and then go and tell the disciples that he has risen from the dead. Tell them that Jesus is going to Galilee and they will be able to see him there.'

The women were amazed and filled with joy and quickly ran from the tomb to tell the disciples.

As they were running, Jesus met them and said, 'Greetings.' The women dropped down and clasped at his feet. Jesus told them not to be afraid and to tell the disciples to leave for Galilee, where Jesus will meet them.
